"Land Title Problems in Hawaii"

Saturday

May 17, 1997

10:00 to 11:30 a.m.

A televised discussion

"live" on Oahu,
on Oceanic Cable
Channel 55

Presented as a part of the
Hawaii Real Estate
Research & Education Center's
Hawaii Chair of Real Estate
Spring Seminar Series (1997), supported by
the Real Estate Education Fund,
Hawaii Real Estate Commission
Professional & Vocational Licensing
Division, Dept. of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, State of Hawaii, and the College of Business Administration,
University of Hawaii at Manoa.

The Hawaii Real Estate Research and Education Center (College of Business Administration, UHM) will present a televised panel discussion focusing on:

- Hawaii's unique land title system
- archeological issues
- water rights
- ocean boundaries, etc.

This program is being presented to provide information about land title problems which are relevant to real estate licensees in the professional practice of real estate.

The program will be broadcast "live" on Oahu only, on Channel 55, Saturday, May 17, 1997 from 10:00a to 11:30a, with viewer call-in on Oahu only for the Q&A portion. The taped version will be re-broadcast on public access channels on the neighbor islands at later dates and times, to be announced.

Panelists include:

- Moderator: Nicholas Ordway, Ph.D., Chairholder, Hawaii Chair of Real Estate, College of Business Administration, University of Hawaii
- Legal Issues: Bruce Graham, Esq., Ashford and Wriston
- Land Title Insurance: John Jubinsky, Esq., Title Guarantee of Hawaii, Inc.
- Real Estate Licensees: Mr. Brian Thomas, Real Estate Instructor and Broker
- Boundary Issues: Mr. Patrick Cummings, President, Hawaii Chapter of the American Congress on Surveyors and Mappers (ACSM)

Due to broadcast constraints, the live broadcast will be on Oahu only with taped versions to be re-broadcast on the neighbor island public access channels at later dates to be announced. In order to include questions and concerns from the neighbor islands, we would like to invite neighbor island licensees to submit written questions to the Center which may be peculiar to their island or county. These will be reviewed by our panel and incorporated into the discussion as appropriate.

Written questions may be submitted by May 1, 1997 to:
